IceDiggers stay hot Alpena streaks into Phantoms Showcase

With a 9-1 record in their last 10 games, fewer teams are hotter right now than the Alpena IceDiggers, who stuck to their winning ways last weekend with a pair of victories over the Marquette Rangers.

"We realize it's only January, but this division is very tight so every point counts," said IceDiggers coach-GM Kenny Miller, whose team improved to 21-12-2 on the season. "But right now, we're concentrating on each game as it comes and not looking too far ahead."

Goaltender Nick Graves turned aside all 19 shots on Friday as the IceDiggers blanked the Rangers, 3-0. Russell Anderson tallied a goal and an assist in the win, with Ryan Timar (game-winner) and Erik Peterson notching the other Alpena goals.

Erik Peterson

The next night, Jon Puskar struck for two goals, including the gamewinner, as the IceDiggers doubled up Marguette, 4-2. Isaac Vaiu added two assists, and goaltender Nate Pellegrino made 27 saves.

"We had solid goaltending both nights and you can tell the guys are coming to the rink ready to play every night," said Miller.

Graves, who was picked up earlier in the season from Southern Minnesota, and Pellegrino have been exceptional of late. Both hold save percentages over .900 and have been instrumental in Alpena's recent surge.

"The coaching staff and the players have total confidence in either guy that plays," Miller said of his tandem between the pipes. "They find ways to get the job done."

And that's led to a move up the North Division standings, where the IceDiggers now sit in second-place, 13 points behind the front-running St. Louis Bandits.

"We're getting solid play from both the veterans and the rookies; every guy has stepped up his game," said Miller. "Guys like Peterson, Anderson and Graves all the way down to the younger guys like (Tyler) Pilmore and (JC) Gulch are chipping in each night to give us a chance to win. The entire team is doing what it takes right now."

Timar and defenseman Jerrod Hartman, both first-year players, have also been playing keys roles in Alpena's success. The 18-year-old's constant improvement since Day 1 has drawn the praise of their coach.

"These two guys have made major strides since we started the season," said Miller. "Both of them have been playing with lots of confidence since the holiday break."

NORTH PLAYER OF THE WEEK

St. Louis forward Ben Miller rang up two goals and five assists last weekend as the Bandits skated to a two-game sweep over Spring-field. On Friday, the 18-year-old notched a goal and four assists, including one on Kyle O'Kane's game-winning marker, in a 10-1 victory. The next night, the Oakland Township, Mich., native tallied the game-winning goal and an assist as St. Louis downed the Jr. Blues, 3-2. He was also a plus-5 for the weekend.

HONORABLE MENTION: Alpena forwards Jerrod Hartman and Ryan Timar; Mahoning Valley forward Derek Graham; Team USA forward David Wohlberg

SOUTH PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Wichita Falls forward Adam Cardwell tallied a goal and five assists last weekend in a two-game sweep of Alaska. On Friday, the 20-year-old connected for a goal and an assist in a 6-3 triumph. The next night, the Long Beach, Calif., native assisted on four goals as the Wildcats bested the Avalanche, 7-4. He was also a plus-4 for the weekend.

CENTRAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Alexandria forward Brandon Bahnemann struck for four goals and two assists last week as the Blizzard fashioned a 2-0-1 record. On Thursday, the 19-year-old scored a goal and an assist in a 7-0 shutout of Southern Minnesota. On Saturday, the Rochester, Minn., native notched the game-winning goal and an assist in the Blizzard's 5-3 triumph over Fargo-Moorhead. The next night, Bahnemann recorded two more goals as Alexandria fell to the Jets in overtime, 4-3. He was also a plus-4 for the week.

HONORABLE MENTION: Fargo-Moorhead forward Justin Kirchhevel and defenseman Mark Johnson; North Iowa defenseman Tyler Jundt and goaltender Matt Beggs
