North Stars shine bright

Traverse City finds winning formula

They might sit in last place in the NAHL's North Division, but with a 6-3-1 record in their last 10 games, including two home victories over the Alpena IceDiggers last weekend, don't count the Traverse City North Stars out just yet.

"For our fans, I'm sure that two straight sweeps of one of our biggest rivals was nice, but for us it's just important to compete hard and execute every night, no matter who we're playing," said North Stars coach-GM Anthony Palumbo, whose team improved to 17-19-11 on the season.

Nate Urbaniak

Kyle Bonis potted two goals as the North Stars doubled up the IceDiggers on Friday, 4-2. Jonathan Sheridan tallied the game-winning goal, while goaltender Chris Paliafito turned back 17 shots.

The next night, Traverse City bested Alpena, 5-4, in a 10-round shootout. Harrison Niemann and Kory Kaunisto each rang up a goal and an assist in the triumph, with Jameson Raymond scoring the gamewinner in the shootout. Paliafito made 27 saves in regulation and six of 10 in the shootout to secure the victory.

"We got solid defense, great goaltending and some very timely goals," said Palumbo. "We seem to be learning how to win."

Are they ever. With their victory on Saturday, the North Stars set a team record for points in a season with 45, eclipsing last year's mark of 43.

Individually, Nate Urbaniak, 19, set a team mark for most points in a season with 53, surpassing the 46 points Patrick Nagorsen, now a freshman at Western Michigan, totaled a year a ago. Urbaniak, a Top Prospects Tournament participant, has 18 points in his last 10 games.

"Nate's a guy who is responsible defensively and creative on the offensive end," said Palumbo. "He's really a complete package."

Bonis also had an outstanding weekend for the North Stars, delivering two goals and an assist, along with a plus-3 rating. The 19-year-old from Lindsay, Ontario, has 11 points in his last 10 contests.

"Kyle's been as consistent an offensive threat as we have pretty much from the day he got here, and last weekend was no different," said Palumbo.

Between the pipes, Paliafito has been outstanding the last few weeks, assuming the bulk of the minutes for the injured Brandon Stephenson.

"Chris has really started to come into his own right now," said Palumbo.

SOUTH PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Topeka forward Eriah Hayes struck for five goals and three assists last week as the RoadRunners skated to three wins over Alaska. On Wednesday, the 19-year-old recorded four goals, including the game-winner, and an assist in an 11-1 triumph. On Sunday, the La Crescent, Wis., native tallied a goal and assisted on Dennis Brown's game-winning marker as the RoadRunners bested the Avalanche, 4-1. Hayes wrapped up his week with an assist in Topeka's 3-1 triumph on Saturday. He was also a plus-6 for the week.

HONORABLE MENTION: Wichita Falls forward Mike Henderson

CENTRAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Springfield goaltender Phil Cook backstopped the Jr. Blues to a 2-1 record against division-leading North Iowa last weekend, turning aside 89 of 93 shots. After making 26 saves in a 3-1 loss on Friday, the 20-year-old rebounded the next night with a 24-save shutout (7-0). On Sunday, the Wheaton, III., native turned aside 39 shots as the Jr. Blues downed the Outlaws, 4-1.

AROUND THE NAHL

TOP PROSPECTS CONCLUDES: The USNTDP and the North Division finished with 2-1 records at last week's NAHL Top Prospects Tournament in Ann Arbor, Mich., while the Central and South Divisions posted 1-2 marks.

WARDA TO MICHIGAN STATE: Second-year St. Louis forward Ben Warda, 20, has committed to Michigan State University (CCHA) for next season. The Top Prospects Tournament participant from Lake Orion, Mich., ranks fifth in league scoring this season with 24 goals for 65 points after 49 games.

WENATCHEE GRANTED CONDITIONAL APPROVAL: The NAHL's Board of Governors has voted to grant conditional approval for an expansion franchise to Wenatchee (Washington) Junior Hockey LLC to begin play next season.

PITTSBURGH WINS MIDGET SHOWCASE: The Pittsburgh Hornets won the third and final tournament of this year's NAHL Midget Show-case Series in Ann Arbor, Mich. The Hornets finished with a perfect 6-0 record, including a 4-2 win over the Chicago Young Americans in the championship game.

SPALDING IMPRESSES ON D: Southern Minnesota defenseman Robby Spalding, 20, rang up three goals, including the game-winner on Friday, and an assist as the Express skated to a two-game sweep over Fargo-Moorhead last weekend. "Robby has a lot of options for next year," said Express coach-GM Matt Romaniski. "He's either looking at going to school or possibly starting a professional career in the minors."
