Wenatchee returns to action with three wins

Despite a two-and-a-half-week layoff, the Wenatchee Wild didn't show any signs of rust last weekend on its way to three wins over the Wichita Falls Wildcats.

"That was a great reward for the work our players put in over the break," said Wild associate head coach Ryan McKelvie, whose team improved to 4-5-1 on the season. "They worked hard and stayed motivated to become a better team."

The Wild opened its week on Wednesday with a 3-2 victory over the Wildcats. DJ Vandercook struck for two goals in the win, with linemates Nic Dowd and Michael Voran each recording two assists. Between the pipes, goaltender Mathieu Dugas turned back 27 shots.

Defenseman Brandon Burrell potted two goals and Dowd added two more assists as the Wild skated to a 5-2 victory on Friday. Junior Cadiz added a goal and an assist for Wenatchee, and Dugas made 21 saves.

Voran connected for two goals in regulation in the Wild's 4-3 shootout win over Wichita Falls on Saturday. Dowd came through with another two points (goal, assist), and Dugas stopped 37 shots and four of five in the shootout to collect his third win of the week.

"The work ethic of our players was excellent," said McKelvie. "We played well defensively by not giving up too many quality scoring chances and when we did, Mathieu came up big.

"Also, we've improved significantly in our ability to create offense. Our players showed patience with the puck, played with speed and used each other to create chances."

Dowd has certainly helped the cause upfront. In just five games since joining the Wild from the USHL, the 18-year-old from Huntsville, Ala., already has eight points (two goals).

"Nic has been a huge addition," said McKelvie. "He plays with a lot of intensity and wants to be the best player on the ice every time he's out there."

The Wild was also excited to see Voran get on track offensively. With only a goal and an assist in his first seven games to start the season, the 18-year-old from Livonia, Mich., came alive with two goals and three assists against Wichita Falls.

"It was only a matter of time before he started to score for us," said McKelvie. "Michael is an excellent person and is one of the leaders of this hockey team. He works as hard as he can in everything that he does, and he makes sure that his teammates are doing the same."

At the other end of the ice, Dugas also proved his worth. The 20-year-old from Quebec made the expected saves - as well as some unexpected – to keep a dangerous Wichita Falls offense at bay.

"Mathieu's mental preparation is excellent," said McKelvie. "He's ultra-competitive and he has great physical abilities. He's a veteran leader on our team who helps push our players to be their best every day."
